Starting at the junction of The Street & Flixton Road opposite the Church. Walk along the road signposted Flixton (1 1/4) & Bungay (4 1/2) for 275 yards (3-5 mins).

When you reach the R hand bend in the road, walk straight on through the gate, keeping the fence line on your L hand side for 250 yards. You will find a small metal gate at the end of this field in the NW corner. Go through this gate and turn R walking across a bridge, and turning L after 20 yards.

Walk for 60 yards, past a small barn on your R, go through a metal gate, and walk straight through a field for 1750 yards (20-25 mins) keeping the river on your L as you go.

Climb over the two stiles and head in a NW direction for 100 yards to a small metal gate. Once through the gate turn R entering the churchyard of St George’s Church via the pedestrian gate, head across the churchyard in a NE direction to the far side of the church (75 yards).

The route runs along the R hand side of the church, up to a hedge at the rear (40 yards), turns R and proceed through the metal gate keeping the hedgerow on your R for 75 yards. When you reach the hedgerow in front of you, turn L and carry straight on for 700 yards onto a minor road (crossing a stile at 500 yards).

Once at the road (Park Road) take a R turn, walk along it for 200 yards before turning R onto a Bridleway (signposted Angles Way).

Walk along the Bridleway for 600 yards until the end of the small copse on your R, take the footpath on your left.

Follow a ditch line on your L hand side for 500 yards, and then a hedgerow on the R hand side. When this hedgerow ends there is a small dogleg L then R, follow the ditched hedgerow now on your L for 370 yards. This will bring you out onto the Flixton Road next to Harp Cottages. Turn R and follow the road all the way back to the church (1500 yards, 20-30 mins).

St Cross St Elmham Walk to South Elmham Hall
Approx 20 - 30 mins

Start at the junction of The Street & Flixton Road opposite the church.

Walk across the churchyard, and cross over the bridge accessible by a small white gate in the SW corner of the churchyard. Head in a SW direction to the stile 75 yards away, keep heading in a SW direction (175 yards), aiming about 40 yards inside the South fenceline, to a small white gate under a big tree.

Go through the gate and head SW across the field till you reach a pond on your R. Follow the large hedgerow on your L until you get to the road (225 yards). At which point turn L and follow this road for 700 yards till you reach South Elmham Hall (10-12 mins).
